Welcome from the Chair

Dear colleagues, on behalf the organising committee, I wish to extend an invitation to you and your networks to participate in the 2018 World Congress on Cancers of the Skin, to be held in Sydney at the International Convention and Exhibition Centre from 15 – 18 August 2018.

The “World Congress on Cancers of the Skin” has become a major interdisciplinary and influential Congress for clinicians and basic scientists working in the challenging fields of Melanoma and Non-Melanoma Skin Cancer. This exciting Congress endeavours to bring over 1,000 attendees together from across the world.

It is our pleasure to host the 2018 Congress in the newly revamped International Convention Centre in Sydney, Australia. We feel privileged and honoured that many of the world's leading experts in the field will actively participate and inspire attendees.

We encourage you to save the dates in your calendar and register your expression of interest today, this way you can be kept up to date with the latest information and program news. We look forward to welcoming you to WCCS 2018 in Sydney, Australia.

Yours sincerely, Professor Alan Cooper OAM

Sydney, Australia

Sydney, Australia's gateway city and the capital of New South Wales, is built around one of the largest, most beautiful harbours in the world and along miles of golden surfing beaches which stretch north and south of the city on the shores of the Pacific Ocean. Sydney is a vigorous, cosmopolitan city, a major industrial, business and commercial centre and is endlessly fascinating in its variety and its beauty.

Perhaps the most famous of Sydney's and Australia as a whole, landmark is the spectacular Sydney Opera House with its graceful 'sails'. The Opera House has become Sydney's cultural centre, offering opera, ballet, drama and film.

International Convention Centre Sydney sits on Darling Harbour, one of Sydney's premier dining and entertainment areas, within its own dynamic, leisure and residential precinct. Positioned in the heart of Australia's global city, it is in easy walking distance to the central business district.
